

REILLY O'SHAUGHNESSY

• actor • maker • educator •

ABOUT ME

- Passionate about creating a truer and more beautiful world through connection, ownership, and bravery.
- Interested in work about motherhood, girlhood, queerness, and intersectional climate justice.
- Committed to holding traditionally othered communities with love, reverence, and joy.

Pronouns are she/they.

EDUCATION

- 2021-present • DePaul University
MFA Acting Candidate
- 2021 • Rose Bruford College
MA International Theater Practice and Performance
- 2014-2018 • New York University
Tisch School of the Arts
BFA Drama, BA Religious Studies
- 2013 • NHSI Theater Arts Cherubs

EXPERIENCE

2019- New York City Department of Correction

2020 Performing Arts Associate (Resident Teaching Artist)

- Building curriculum and facilitating weekly performing arts education experiences including acting, improv, painting, singing, poetry, origami, creative writing, musical theater history, and Shakespeare.
- Facilitating Performing Arts events, concerts, plays and guest speakers, which bring Detainees, Officers, and Staff together to share a common artistic experience.

2018- Atlantic Theater Company

2019 Teaching Artist

- Teaching Core Classes (Voice and Movement) for high school students at the Atlantic Theater Summer Conservatory
- Teaching Music, Acting, Improv, and Scene Study for ages 5-17 After School and Summer Camp Programs.
- Facilitating Pre and Post Classroom Workshops for Atlantic Mainstage and TYA shows in schools around NYC.

2018- Montfort Academy

2019 Shakespeare Director

- Teaching and Directing the Montfort Academy high school students in Twelfth Night (2018) and Macbeth (2019).

SKILLS

Voice & Speech

Dialects

Dance

Yoga

Movement

Ontological Coaching

